

VINTRY

Meaning: Vintry: a place or establishment where wine is sold or stored, often associated with merchants and wine trade.

1. The vintry was bustling with merchants showcasing their finest wines.
2. After a long journey, the travelers gathered in the vintry to enjoy a glass of red.
3. The historic vintry stood as a testament to the city's rich winemaking heritage.
4. In the vintry, the aroma of aged barrels mingled with laughter and conversation.
5. She often visited the vintry to sample the latest vintages from local vineyards.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/vintry>