

VIOLATIVE

Meaning: Violative: causing or constituting a violation of laws, rules, or agreements.

1. The company's practices were deemed violative of labor laws, leading to significant fines.
2. Her actions were considered violative of the terms of the agreement, prompting a legal response.
3. They issued a warning after discovering that the new policy was violative of civil rights protections.
4. The court ruled that the new regulation was violative, dismantling it on constitutional grounds.
5. Activists rallied against the violative policies that infringed upon citizens' freedoms and rights.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/violative>