

VIPER

Meaning: A viper is a type of venomous snake known for its long, hinged fangs and often characterized by a distinctive triangular head.

1. The viper slithered silently through the underbrush, camouflaged against the forest floor.
2. She felt a shiver of fear as she spotted the venomous viper coiled beneath the rock.
3. In ancient mythology, the viper was often seen as a symbol of danger and betrayal.
4. The documentary showcased the unique hunting techniques of the desert viper in its harsh environment.
5. His quick reflexes allowed him to avoid the viper's strike just in time.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/viper>