

VIPERINE

Meaning: Viperine refers to something that resembles or is characteristic of a viper, particularly in terms of being venomous or having a sly, cunning nature.

1. The viperine snake slithered quietly through the underbrush, its scales glistening in the sunlight.
2. Her viperine wit often caught her friends off guard, leaving them both amused and slightly intimidated.
3. Standing next to the viperine statue, she couldn't help but admire the intricate details carved into the stone.
4. The viperine nature of his remarks made it clear that he was not in the mood for pleasantries.
5. As the storm approached, the viperine winds howled through the trees, creating an eerie atmosphere.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/viperine>