

VIPEROUS

Meaning: VIPEROUS: characterized by malice or venomous hostility; spiteful or malicious in speech or behavior.

1. The politician's viperous remarks left many in the audience feeling uneasy.
2. Her viperous nature made it difficult for her to maintain friendships for long.
3. In the heat of the debate, his viperous words cut deep into his opponent's character.
4. The novel's antagonist was portrayed as a viperous figure, always scheming and plotting.
5. Despite her charming smile, there was a viperous edge to her advice that few could ignore.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/viperous>