

VIRGINAL

Meaning: VIRGINAL: Adjective describing something that is pure, untouched, or innocent, often in reference to nature or personal character.

1. The artist depicted a virginal landscape untouched by human hands.
2. Her virginal demeanor made her stand out in the bustling crowd.
3. He played a beautiful melody on the virginal, filling the room with soft music.
4. The novel portrayed a virginal character whose innocence was both a strength and a vulnerability.
5. They carefully preserved the virginal beauty of the ancient forest as a sanctuary for wildlife.
6. The artist captured the essence of the virginal landscape in her painting.
7. Her virginal innocence was evident in the way she approached new experiences.
8. The antique shop featured a virginal harpsichord, untouched and in pristine condition.
9. He was drawn to her virginal charm, which seemed both refreshing and timeless.
10. The story unfolds in a virginal setting, untouched by modernity and filled with nature's beauty.
11. The artist captured the beauty of the virginal landscape in her latest painting.
12. She wore a virginal white dress that symbolized her innocence and purity.
13. The ancient manuscript was a virginal artifact, untouched by the hands of time.
14. His virginal curiosity led him to explore the world with wide-eyed wonder.
15. The ceremony celebrated not only their union but also the virginal traditions of their culture.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/virginal>