

VISARD

Meaning: A visard is a mask or face covering used to conceal one's identity or protect the face, often associated with historical or theatrical contexts.

1. The magician wore a stunning visard that concealed his identity during the performance.
2. In medieval times, a visard was often used by women to protect their skin from the sun.
3. The mysterious figure in the painting had a visard that added an air of intrigue to the artwork.
4. During the masquerade ball, guests arrived adorned in elegant gowns and intricate visards.
5. The visard was not only a fashion statement but also a symbol of social status in high society.
6. The artist designed a unique visard that added an air of mystery to her masquerade costume.
7. In the historical play, the character donned a visard to conceal his identity during the ball.
8. The visard, made of intricate lace, was the centerpiece of her stunning outfit for the event.
9. As the guests arrived, they marveled at the elaborate visards that adorned many faces in the crowd.
10. The visard served not only as a mask but also as a symbol of social status in the 18th century.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/visard>