

VISIT

Meaning: Visit (verb): to go to see someone or a place for a short time.

1. I plan to visit my grandparents this weekend.
2. The museum was crowded, but I still managed to enjoy my visit.
3. She received a call from her friend inviting her to visit the new café in town.
4. During our trip to Paris, we made sure to visit the Eiffel Tower.
5. He was excited to visit the historical site he had read about for years.
6. The museum offers guided tours for those who want to visit.
7. She decided to visit the new café that everyone was talking about.
8. It's important to visit your doctor regularly for check-ups.
9. They made a surprise visit to celebrate her birthday.
10. I plan to visit my grandmother this weekend.
11. They decided to visit the museum after lunch.
12. She hopes to visit several countries during her summer break.
13. The teacher encouraged us to visit the library for more resources.
14. We received a warm welcome when we went to visit their new home.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/visit>