

VISORED

Meaning: VISORED (adjective): equipped with a visor, typically referring to headgear or eyewear designed to shield the eyes from sunlight or debris.

1. The cyclist wore a visored helmet to protect his eyes from the sun.
2. She preferred her visored sunglasses for their stylish yet practical design.
3. The futuristic car featured a visored dashboard that displayed all necessary information.
4. During the race, the runner adjusted his visored cap to shield himself from the glare.
5. The artist's latest installation included a visored sculpture that played with light and shadow.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/visored>