

VITILIGO

Meaning: Vitiligo is a skin disorder marked by the loss of melanin, leading to irregular white patches on the skin.

1. Vitiligo is a skin condition characterized by the loss of pigment, resulting in white patches on the skin.
2. Many people with vitiligo face challenges related to self-esteem and body image.
3. Recent studies have explored the genetic factors that may contribute to the development of vitiligo.
4. Despite its visible effects, vitiligo is not contagious and poses no health risks.
5. Support groups can provide valuable resources and a sense of community for those living with vitiligo.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/vitiligo>