

VITRESCENT

Meaning: VITRESCENT: (adjective) relating to or having the quality of becoming glassy or glass-like, especially in appearance or texture.

1. The artist chose a vitrescent glaze for the ceramic piece to enhance its reflective qualities.
2. Under the intense heat of the furnace, the silica began to vitrescent, forming a glossy surface.
3. The vitrescent nature of the glassy mineral made it a prized material for ancient jewelry.
4. In modern architecture, vitrescent elements are often used to create striking visual effects in buildings.
5. The vitrescent layer on the surface of the stone caught the sunlight beautifully, creating a mesmerizing shimmer.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/vitrescent>