

VITRIC

Meaning: VITRIC: relating to or resembling glass, particularly in texture or appearance, often used in the context of volcanic materials.

1. The vitric texture of the volcanic glass gave the sculpture a unique, reflective quality.
2. Researchers studied the vitric layers in the sediment to understand the area's geological history.
3. The artist chose vitric materials for their ability to capture light in unexpected ways.
4. During the hike, we stumbled upon a vitric outcrop that sparkled under the sun.
5. Her analysis revealed that the vitric components were crucial for the integrity of the ancient artifact.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/vitric>