

VITRIOLATION

Meaning: Vitriolation refers to the act of harshly criticizing or verbally attacking someone, often in a bitter or malicious manner.

1. The vitriolation of her character in the gossip column was both hurtful and unjust.
2. His speech was marked by a vitriolation that shocked even his closest supporters.
3. The vitriolation of the team's reputation through unfounded rumors had lasting consequences.
4. In her critique, she employed a level of vitriolation that overshadowed her valid points.
5. The vitriolation of their friendship over a trivial misunderstanding was heartbreaking to witness.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/vitriolation>