

VITRIOLIC

Meaning: Vitriolic: characterized by harsh, bitter, and caustic criticism or language.

1. Her vitriolic criticism of the policy left many of her colleagues feeling disheartened.
2. The author's vitriolic remarks about the government sparked a heated debate among readers.
3. Despite his talent, his vitriolic attitude often alienated potential collaborators.
4. The vitriolic language used in the debate overshadowed the important issues at hand.
5. She responded to the vitriolic comments online with a calm and measured approach.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/vitriolic>