

VITRIOLIZATION

Meaning: Vitriolization refers to the process of expressing bitter, harsh, or abusive criticism, often resulting in heightened hostility and division in communication.

1. The vitriolization of public discourse has led to increased polarization among communities.
2. In her essay, she explored the effects of vitriolization on social media interactions.
3. The vitriolization of political opponents often stifles constructive debate and dialogue.
4. He criticized the vitriolization prevalent in contemporary journalism as damaging to truth.
5. Through vitriolization, nuanced arguments are frequently reduced to extreme positions.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/vitriolization>