

VITRIOLOUS

Meaning: VITRIOLOUS (adjective): characterized by harsh, bitter, or caustic criticism or speech.

1. His vitriolic remarks during the debate alienated many of his supporters.
2. The critic's vitriolic review of the novel overshadowed its artistic merits.
3. She responded to the vitriolic comments online with grace and poise.
4. The politician's vitriolic speech sparked outrage among various community groups.
5. In the face of vitriolic opposition, he remained steadfast in his beliefs.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/vitriolous>