

VITULINE

Meaning: Vituline refers to characteristics or structures resembling or related to calves, often used in architectural or artistic contexts to denote stability or specific aesthetic qualities.

1. Vituline structures were often used in ancient architecture to enhance stability.
2. The vituline features of the sculpture captivated art historians at the exhibition.
3. Researchers discovered that the vituline pattern in the cells plays a role in their regeneration.
4. In the study of animal anatomy, the vituline characteristic helps differentiate between species.
5. The vituline aspect of the project emphasized the importance of sustainable practices in farming.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/vituline>