

VITUPERABLE

Meaning: Vituperable: deserving of strong criticism or condemnation; blameworthy.

1. His vituperable behavior during the meeting left everyone in shock.
2. The critic's vituperable remarks about the artist overshadowed any constructive feedback.
3. In a debate, it's important to focus on the issues rather than resorting to vituperable insults.
4. The politician's vituperable language alienated potential supporters and damaged his reputation.
5. Despite the vituperable comments from his opponents, he remained focused on his campaign goals.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/vituperable>