

VITUPERATIVE

Meaning: Vituperative: characterized by harsh, abusive, or severely critical language.

1. His vituperative remarks during the meeting alienated many of his colleagues.
2. The critic's vituperative review left the artist feeling disheartened and discouraged.
3. She was taken aback by the vituperative tone of his emails, which seemed unwarranted.
4. Despite the vituperative comments from the audience, the speaker remained composed and continued.
5. In her vituperative speech, she condemned the corruption that had plagued the administration.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/vituperative>