

VITUPERRIOUS

Meaning: Vituperious: characterized by harsh and abusive language; scathing or vitriolic.

1. Her vituperious remarks during the debate alienated many of her supporters.
2. The critic's vituperious review of the film left the director feeling disheartened.
3. Despite his vituperious attitude, she remained calm and composed throughout the argument.
4. The vituperious nature of his speech surprised everyone, especially considering his usual diplomacy.
5. In a vituperious outburst, she condemned the unfair treatment of the workers.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/vituperious>