

VOCALIZATION

Meaning: Vocalization is the act of producing sounds or utterances, often used to communicate, as seen in both animal communication and human performances.

1. The study of animal vocalization has revealed fascinating insights into their communication methods.
2. Her vocalization during the performance captivated the audience and left them in awe.
3. Understanding the nuances of vocalization can greatly improve language learning in children.
4. The researchers recorded the vocalization of different bird species to analyze patterns in their songs.
5. His vocalization in the theater was so powerful that it resonated throughout the entire hall.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/vocalization>