

VOCATIONAL

Meaning: Vocational refers to education or training that prepares individuals for specific trades or careers, focusing on practical skills rather than academic subjects.

1. Many students choose vocational training programs to gain practical skills for specific careers.
2. The vocational school offers courses in fields such as plumbing, electrical work, and cosmetology.
3. She found great satisfaction in her vocational path as a chef, honing her culinary skills in a professional kitchen.
4. Vocational education can provide opportunities for individuals to enter the workforce more quickly than traditional degree programs.
5. He decided to pursue a vocational certification in automotive technology to enhance his job prospects.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/vocational>