VOCIFERANT

Meaning: Vociferant: characterized by loud and forceful expression or outcry.

1. The vociferant crowd at the concert cheered relentlessly for their favorite band.

2. Her vociferant objections during the meeting made it clear she was not in favor of the proposal.

3. Despite the vociferant protests from the community, the city council decided to proceed with the project.

4. The vociferant demands for change echoed through the streets as marchers rallied for justice.

5. In the debate, his vociferant arguments captivated the audience and swayed many opinions.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/vociferant