

VOCIFERATOR

Meaning: Vociferator: a person who speaks or shouts loudly and passionately, often to attract attention or express strong opinions.

1. The vociferator at the rally drew a crowd with his passionate speeches.
2. In the meeting, she took on the role of vociferator, ensuring everyone heard her concerns.
3. His reputation as a vociferator made him a controversial figure in the local community.
4. During the debate, the vociferator dominated the conversation, leaving little room for opposing views.
5. The vociferator's comments sparked a lively discussion among the attendees.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/vociferator>