VOID

Meaning: Void: (adjective) having no legal force or effect; (noun) an empty space or feeling of emptiness.

1. The contract was deemed void due to a lack of mutual consent.
2. After the argument, an uncomfortable void settled between them, filling the room with tension.
3. The explorer stared into the abyss, feeling as though he was gazing into a vast void of uncertainty.
4. Her absence left a void in his life that no one else could fill.
5. The team struggled to find a solution, feeling lost in the void of conflicting opinions.
6. The sudden departure of their leader left a void in the team's morale.
7. She felt a profound void in her life after moving to a new city without any friends.
8. The contract was deemed void due to the absence of a signature.
9. In his absence, the once vibrant community faced a void that was hard to fill.
10. The void created by the missing piece in the puzzle frustrated her for hours.
11. The contract was declared void due to the lack of signatures.
12. After the storm, the once vibrant garden was left in a void of desolation.
13. She felt a deep void in her heart after her best friend moved away.
14. His explanation left me with a sense of void, as it raised more questions than answers.
15. The scientist aimed to fill the void in knowledge about the newly discovered species.
16. The sudden silence in the room created a palpable void that made everyone uncomfortable.
17. After their argument, she felt a void in their relationship that seemed impossible to fill.
18. The contract was declared void due to a lack of proper signatures from both parties.
19. He gazed out at the vast expanse of the ocean, feeling a sense of awe at its infinite void.
20. The artist used bold colors to portray the emotions that filled the void left by loss.
21. The contract was rendered void after both parties failed to meet their obligations.

22. She felt an overwhelming sense of void after her best friend moved to another city.

23. The judge declared the will void due to the lack of proper witnesses.

24. In the vast expanse of space, the stars seemed to twinkle against the endless void.

25. He tried to fill the void in his life with new hobbies and friendships.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/void