

VOIDABLE

Meaning: Voidable: capable of being annulled or invalidated at the option of one party, often due to circumstances such as misrepresentation.

1. The contract was deemed voidable due to the misrepresentation of key facts.
2. In legal terms, a voidable agreement allows one party to withdraw without penalty.
3. She realized that her consent was obtained under duress, making the contract voidable.
4. The judge ruled that the marriage was voidable because of fraud committed by one spouse.
5. Understanding the concept of voidable contracts is essential for anyone entering into agreements.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/voidable>