

VOMIT

Meaning: VOMIT: to expel the contents of the stomach through the mouth, often as a result of nausea or illness.

1. After consuming a large amount of spoiled food, he felt the urge to vomit.
2. The smell of the fish was so overpowering that she nearly vomited.
3. During the roller coaster ride, many passengers screamed, and a few ended up vomiting.
4. She struggled to keep her composure, but the sight of the accident made her want to vomit.
5. He watched in horror as the dog vomited all over the carpet.
6. She felt nauseous after the roller coaster ride and had to run to the bathroom to vomit.
7. The smell of spoiled food made him gag, and he feared he might vomit if he didn't get some fresh air.
8. After staying up all night studying, she woke up feeling dizzy and had a sudden urge to vomit.
9. The doctor explained that vomiting is the body's way of expelling toxins and can be a protective mechanism.
10. He tried to hold back his feelings of sickness, but the sight of the blood made him want to vomit.
11. After feeling queasy all morning, she finally had to excuse herself to vomit in the restroom.
12. The intense smell of the spoiled food made him gag, and he feared he might vomit on the spot.
13. In the aftermath of the wild party, the floor was littered with empty bottles and signs of vomit.
14. He tried to hold back his nausea, but the sight of the gruesome scene made him vomit.
15. During the roller coaster ride, she was so dizzy that she couldn't help but vomit right after stepping off.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/vomit>