

VOMITING

Meaning: Vomiting is the act of forcibly expelling the contents of the stomach through the mouth, often as a response to nausea or to eliminate harmful substances.

1. After eating the spoiled food, she was overwhelmed by nausea and ended up vomiting.
2. The doctor explained that vomiting is the body's way of getting rid of harmful substances.
3. He felt an intense wave of dizziness before suddenly needing to rush to the bathroom to vomit.
4. During the stomach virus outbreak, many children at the school experienced vomiting and diarrhea.
5. She tried to calm her friend, who was panicking after hours of uncontrollable vomiting.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/vomiting>