

VORTIGINOUS

Meaning: VORTIGINOUS: causing a feeling of dizziness or vertigo, often characterized by rapid or whirling motion.

1. The roller coaster's vortiginous twists left the riders breathless and exhilarated.
2. As she gazed down from the dizzying height, a vortiginous sensation swept through her, causing her head to spin.
3. The vortiginous dance of the leaves in the wind was a mesmerizing sight in the autumn sunlight.
4. He experienced a vortiginous rush while climbing the steep mountain trail, feeling both fear and excitement.
5. In her novel, the author described a vortiginous journey through time that challenged the characters' perceptions of reality.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/vortiginous>