

VOUCHMENT

Meaning: Vouchment is the act of affirming or supporting a claim made by another party, especially in a legal context.

1. The vouchment of the witness was crucial in securing the defendant's acquittal.
2. In legal terms, vouchment refers to the act of affirming or backing a claim made by another party.
3. During the negotiation, the vouchment of support from influential figures helped sway public opinion.
4. The contract included a vouchment clause that required both parties to verify their commitments.
5. Her vouchment of the product's quality convinced many skeptical customers to make a purchase.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/vouchment>