

VOUCHOR

Meaning: A vouchor is a document or certificate that serves as proof of entitlement to a benefit, such as a discount or complimentary service.

1. The company issued a vouchor as a gesture of goodwill after the service mishap.
2. He presented a vouchor at the restaurant, redeeming it for a complimentary meal.
3. With the vouchor in hand, she felt excited about her upcoming shopping spree.
4. The promotional campaign included a vouchor that encouraged customers to return.
5. After noticing the error, the manager quickly provided a vouchor to apologize for the inconvenience.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/vouchor>