

VOWER

Meaning: A vower is a person who makes a solemn promise or vow, often in the context of love or commitment.

1. The vower of eternal love promised to cherish her partner for all time.
2. In the ceremony, each participant became a vower of loyalty to their cause.
3. As a vower of peace, he dedicated his life to resolving conflicts through dialogue.
4. The vower stood before the assembly, pledging to uphold the values of the community.
5. Her heartfelt words made her a sincere vower, inspiring others to join her mission.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/vower>