

VULNERATION

Meaning: VULNERATION: the process of being made vulnerable or susceptible to harm or damage.

1. The vulnerability of the ecosystem to pollution led to the gradual vulneration of various species.
2. Her constant self-criticism resulted in a vulneration of her self-esteem over the years.
3. The vulneration of the ancient structure was evident after the severe storm swept through the region.
4. In discussions about mental health, vulneration can often reveal deeper emotional scars.
5. The team's strategy aimed to minimize the vulneration of their defense against the rival's aggressive attacks.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/vulneration>