

VULPIC

Meaning: VULPIC: possessing a cunning or sly quality, often evoking the characteristics of a fox.

1. The artist's latest painting had a vulpic quality, capturing the cunning nature of its subjects beautifully.
2. As the sun set behind the hills, the vulpic shadows danced across the valley floor.
3. Her vulpic laughter echoed through the forest, drawing attention from all the woodland creatures.
4. The novel's protagonist had a vulpic charm that made it difficult for anyone to distrust him.
5. In folklore, the vulpic trickster often outsmarted even the wisest of elders.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/vulpic>