

VULPINE

Meaning: VULPINE: resembling or characteristic of a fox, especially in being sly or cunning.

1. The artist's work had a vulpine quality, capturing the slyness of its subjects.
2. She wore a vulpine grin that hinted at her mischievous intentions.
3. The story featured a vulpine character who outsmarted all his adversaries.
4. His vulpine instincts served him well in the high-stakes world of corporate espionage.
5. The landscape was alive with vulpine creatures darting through the underbrush at dusk.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/vulpine>