

WAGER

Meaning: WAGER (noun): a sum of money or something of value risked on the outcome of an event, particularly in a bet.

1. He decided to place a wager on the outcome of the championship game.
2. She was hesitant to wager her savings on a bet that seemed too risky.
3. The friends made a friendly wager to see who could predict the winner of the race.
4. In a moment of bravado, he agreed to wager his prized guitar in a game of cards.
5. The odds were against him, but he couldn't resist the thrill of a high-stakes wager.
6. She decided to wager her savings on the outcome of the championship game.
7. They made a friendly wager on who would finish the marathon first.
8. He was hesitant to wager on a horse with such a poor track record.
9. After much deliberation, she chose to wager a small amount on the final score of the match.
10. The thrill of the wager added an extra layer of excitement to the poker night.
11. He decided to place a wager on the outcome of the football match.
12. She was confident enough in her analysis to make a substantial wager.
13. They entered into a friendly wager about who could run the fastest mile.
14. Despite the risks, he couldn't resist the thrill of a high-stakes wager.
15. The wager between them sparked a lively debate about sports strategy.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/wager>