

WAIF

Meaning: A waif is a homeless or abandoned child, often appearing fragile or vulnerable.

1. The kind-hearted woman took in the waif, offering her shelter and warmth.
2. In the dim light of the alley, a waif sat shivering, clutching her tattered coat.
3. The artist captured the essence of the waif in his painting, evoking a sense of longing.
4. Despite her hardships, the waif possessed an indomitable spirit that shone through her eyes.
5. The story revolved around a waif who transformed her life through sheer determination and hope.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/waif>