

WAILER

Meaning: A wailer is a person or thing that emits a loud, mournful cry or lament, often expressing grief or sorrow.

1. The mournful wailer at the funeral echoed the deep sorrow of the gathered mourners.
2. In the quiet of the night, the distant sound of a wailer sent chills down my spine.
3. She was known as the town's best storyteller, often spinning tales that made her audience feel like wailers in a saga of loss.
4. As the storm approached, the wailer in the wind seemed to lament the impending destruction.
5. He felt like a wailer himself, trapped in a moment of grief he could not escape.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/wailer>