

WAILFUL

Meaning: WAILFUL: expressing or characterized by deep sorrow or mourning, often through loud cries or lamentations.

1. The wailful cries of the abandoned puppy echoed through the empty streets.
2. In her wailful lament, she expressed the deep sorrow that weighed heavily on her heart.
3. The artist captured the wailful essence of grief in his hauntingly beautiful painting.
4. As the storm raged outside, the wailful howls of the wind seemed to mirror her inner turmoil.
5. The children's wailful pleas for their lost toy tugged at the heartstrings of every passerby.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/wailful>