

WAILMENT

Meaning: WAILMENT: A mournful cry or lamentation expressing grief or suffering.

1. The child's wailment echoed through the night, piercing the silence with its urgency.
2. After the accident, the wailment of the injured filled the air with a haunting sorrow.
3. Her wailment was a heartbreaking reminder of the loss she had endured.
4. In the distance, the wailment of sirens signaled that help was on the way.
5. The mournful wailment of the train whistle carried across the foggy landscape.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/wailment>