

WAKE

Meaning: Wake (verb): To emerge from sleep or cause someone to emerge from sleep.

1. I usually wake up early to enjoy the quiet morning hours.
2. The loud noise from the construction site made it impossible for me to wake peacefully.
3. She tried to wake him gently, but he was deep in sleep.
4. After the long flight, it took him a while to fully wake from his jet lag.
5. The sunrise always seemed to wake the city with its vibrant colors.
6. The loud noise from the street made it difficult for me to wake peacefully.
7. She felt a sense of relief as she began to wake from the troubling dream.
8. It's important to wake your body up gradually by stretching after sleep.
9. The alarm is set to wake me at seven, but I often hit snooze.
10. I like to wake up early to enjoy the quiet of the morning.
11. The sudden noise outside was enough to wake the entire neighborhood.
12. She tried to wake him gently, not wanting to startle him from his dreams.
13. Their friendship helped him wake from the emotional numbness he had felt for years.
14. The sun began to rise, casting a warm glow that seemed to wake the world around.
15. I always wake up early to enjoy the quiet of the morning.
16. The loud noise from the street was enough to wake the entire neighborhood.
17. She tried to wake him gently, not wanting to disturb his peaceful sleep.
18. The aroma of fresh coffee was enough to wake my spirits.
19. He felt a sudden urge to wake from his daydream and return to reality.