

WALK-MILL

Meaning: A walk-mill is a designated path or area, often historical or scenic, where people can walk for leisure and enjoyment.

1. The old walk-mill by the river was a popular spot for families to enjoy a leisurely stroll.
2. He decided to visit the historic walk-mill to learn more about its role in the local community.
3. During our hike, we stumbled upon a charming walk-mill that had been beautifully restored.
4. The walk-mill provided a scenic backdrop for our picnic on a sunny afternoon.
5. As we wandered past the walk-mill, the sound of the watermill added a soothing ambiance to our day.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/walk-mill>