

WALLAH

Meaning: "WALLAH" is an Arabic expression used to emphasize the truth of a statement or promise, often translated as "I swear by God."

1. Wallah, I promise I'll help you with your project.
2. She said it was done, wallah, and I believed her.
3. He swore wallah that he had never seen the missing documents.
4. Wallah, this dish is the best I've ever tasted!
5. I can't believe it, wallah, that he actually showed up on time.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/wallah>