

WALLING

Meaning: WALLING: The act of creating a barrier or separation, either emotionally (as in isolating feelings) or physically (as in constructing a wall).

1. Walling off their emotions, she found it difficult to connect with others.
2. The old stone walling around the garden had been beautifully restored.
3. He spent the afternoon walling in the new plants to protect them from the wind.
4. The artist's latest installation involved walling off sections of the gallery to create intimate spaces.
5. They were walling themselves in with their fears, unable to take the next step.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/walling>