

WALLOP

Meaning: WALLOP (noun): a strong blow or impact.

1. The boxer delivered a powerful wallop that left his opponent on the canvas.
2. The unexpected wallop of wind knocked the hat off her head.
3. She felt the wallop of the waves as they crashed against the shore.
4. His criticism came as a wallop, shaking her confidence to the core.
5. The news was a wallop that changed their plans for the entire year.
6. The boxer landed a powerful wallop that sent his opponent to the canvas.
7. After a long day at work, the unexpected news hit her like a wallop in the gut.
8. The comedian's punchline was a wallop that had the entire audience roaring with laughter.
9. He received a wallop of criticism after his controversial remarks during the interview.
10. The storm delivered a wallop of rain that flooded the streets in just a few hours.
11. The boxer delivered a powerful wallop that sent his opponent to the canvas.
12. After a long day at work, I needed a good wallop of coffee to keep me awake.
13. The storm last night was so intense, it felt like nature's wallop against the windows.
14. When the car hit the tree, the wallop echoed through the quiet neighborhood.
15. Her laughter was so infectious that it felt like a wallop of joy in the room.
16. The boxer delivered a massive wallop that sent his opponent to the mat.
17. After a long day at work, I needed a wallop of caffeine to keep me going.
18. The sudden wallop of wind knocked the papers off my desk and sent them flying.
19. She felt a wallop of joy when she received the good news about her promotion.
20. The storm brought a wallop of rain that flooded the streets in just a few hours.
21. The boxer delivered a powerful wallop that knocked his opponent out cold.
22. She felt a sudden wallop of emotion as she watched the touching scene unfold.
23. His criticism hit me like a wallop, making me reconsider my approach.

24. The thunderstorm arrived with a wallop, shaking the windows and rattling the doors.
25. After the heavy rain, the swollen river gave a wallop against the bridge, alarming the residents.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/wallop>