

WAMBLE

Meaning: WAMBLE (verb): to feel a queasy sensation or discomfort in the stomach.

1. The rich meal left him with a wamble in his stomach.
2. After the roller coaster ride, she felt a sudden wamble that made her uneasy.
3. He tried to ignore the wamble of hunger that was distracting him from his work.
4. The combination of stress and an empty stomach caused a wamble that he couldn't shake off.
5. As the boat rocked on the waves, a wamble threatened to spoil their fishing trip.
6. After indulging in a rich meal, I felt a wamble in my stomach that made me reconsider my choices.
7. The sudden wamble of the boat as the waves crashed against it left everyone feeling a bit queasy.
8. She laughed off the wamble in her belly, attributing it to nerves before her big performance.
9. As the roller coaster plummeted downwards, a thrilling wamble washed over me, mixing excitement with a hint of fear.
10. His anxious wamble was evident as he awaited the results of his job interview.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/wamble>