

WANTING

Meaning: Wanting refers to a deep desire or yearning for something, often indicating an emotional or existential need.

1. The artist's latest exhibit explores the theme of wanting and the longing for connection.
2. After months of training, she found herself wanting more than just a medal; she craved the thrill of competition.
3. His wanting for adventure led him to travel across the globe, seeking new experiences at every turn.
4. In her eyes, there was a glimmer of wanting that suggested she was ready for a change.
5. The wanting for acceptance can often drive people to make choices they wouldn't normally consider.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/wanting>