

WARBLE

Meaning: Warble: to sing or produce a melodic sound in a series of trills or quavers.

1. The bird began to warble a sweet melody at dawn.
2. As she sang, her voice seemed to warble with emotion.
3. He could hear the distant warble of a stream flowing through the forest.
4. The radio emitted a faint warble before the song started playing.
5. In her excitement, she couldn't help but warble a few notes of her favorite tune.
6. The birds began to warble as the sun rose over the horizon.
7. She loved to hear the musician warble softly while strumming his guitar.
8. The warble of the brook provided a peaceful background for their picnic.
9. He tried to warble a tune, but his voice was too hoarse to carry a note.
10. As the frogs began to warble at dusk, the night came alive with sound.
11. The bird began to warble a sweet melody as the sun rose over the horizon.
12. As she sang, her voice would warble with emotion, captivating everyone in the room.
13. The sound of the wind caused the chimes to warble gently, creating a serene atmosphere.
14. He could hear the distant warble of the frogs as night fell in the quiet marsh.
15. The musician skillfully managed to warble the high notes, impressing the audience with her range.
16. The songbird began to warble cheerfully at dawn.
17. As the wind rustled the leaves, it seemed to warble a gentle tune.
18. She was delighted to hear the faint warble of the distant organ.
19. The baby's laughter would often warble through the quiet house.
20. He attempted to warble a few lines of his favorite song in the shower.

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/warble>