

WARLIKENESS

Meaning: Warlikeness refers to the quality or state of being aggressive, combative, or inclined to engage in warfare.

1. The warlikeness of the tribe was evident in their fierce resistance against outside invaders.
2. In literature, warlikeness often symbolizes the darker aspects of human nature and conflict.
3. The artist captured the warlikeness of battle through vivid colors and dynamic brush strokes.
4. Philosophers debate whether warlikeness is an inherent trait of humanity or a product of societal conditions.
5. As tensions rose, the warlikeness of the nation became increasingly pronounced, leading to inevitable conflict.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/warlikeness>