

WARLING

Meaning: Warling (noun): A melodious sound or song, especially that produced by birds or in a playful, cheerful context.

1. The warling of the birds at dawn filled the air with a melodic symphony.
2. As the two friends reminisced, their laughter echoed like a warling song through the park.
3. The poet described the warling of the wind as it danced through the trees.
4. In the distance, the warling of the stream provided a soothing background to their conversation.
5. She found solace in the warling of nature, a soothing balm to her busy mind.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/warling>